

Dear Parents,

Below you will find a list of assignments for March 30 – April 9. During this time, I will be working during the hours of 8-2. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me through email or my phone (843) 598-9193.

Studied Dictation: (April 1 assessment date) Words 70 Grammar 12

A bustle of church officers followed; the bier was carried forth to the dead-house, and the stains of blood were cleansed from off the tiles, that no such ill-omened spectacle should disgrace the marriage of Lord Shoreby. At the same time, the very ecclesiastics who had been so dismally engaged all night began to put on morning faces to do honor to the merrier ceremony which was about to follow.

Studied Dictation (April 8 assessment date) Words 77 Grammar 10

Every here and there small combats of from two a dozen still raged upon the open street; here and there a house was being besieged, the defenders throwing out stools and tables on the heads of the assailants. The snow was strewn with arms and corpses; but except for these partial combats the streets were deserted, and the houses, some standing open and some shuddered and barricaded, had for the most part ceased to give out smoke.

Poem: The Tale of Canterbury Prologue

 9 lines Due the week of April 3 *****

It befell that in that season on a day,
In Southwark at The Tabard as I lay,
Ready to set out on my pilgrimage
To Canterbury with pious courage,
There came at night to that hostelry
Quite nine and twenty in a company
Of sundry folk who had chanced to fall
Into a fellowship, and pilgrims all,
That towards Canterbury meant to ride.

 7 Lines Due week of April 9 *****

The chambers and the stables were full wide,
And we housed at our ease, and of the best;
And shortly, when the sun had gone to rest,
I had such speech with each and everyone,
That of their fellowship I soon made one,
Agreeing I would make an early rise,
To take our way there, as I now advise.
